Attorney Power Is Losing Fast To Public Opinion

The last great fight of Liberalism is to break up the secret money power that swarms and retards the operation of our democratic institutions. Men who have been fearless in denouncing abuse and advocating reform have been crucified by the force of public opinion today is becoming greater than any force that can be exerted by the secret money power.

USE NATIONAL CREDIT
I strongly believe that the national credit must be used for national purposes and can no longer be privately owned and controlled. Since the armistice the Dominion has paid out $1,000,000,000 in interest.

THEY SHOULD BE
We have the power to control the whole system of social insurance. That suggestion be made regarding amendments to the R.S.A. Act.

LOCAL COAST DEFER ESTABLISHMENT OF "COVES"

Torough Survey of Whole Province To Be Made By Deputy

Premier R. G. Reid Says William Anderson To Take Over Duties as Soon as Possible.

Policies regarding the establishment of "coves" or any other features in the new Trade and Commerce Act, proclaimed by the government last Friday, will be deferred until William Anderson, the deputy minister, has carried out a thorough industrial survey of the province, according to Premier R. G. Reid.

The premier also stated that Mr. Anderson would take over his duties as soon as he was able to return from his recent tour of the westward lumber company, for which organization he was manager.

One of the important phases of the work of the new department, said the premier, "will be to be put in the act, to make surveys from time to time of all or any natural resources in the province, and to formulate plans for their use, economical and orderly development."

The premier spoke appreciatively of the great amount of work already done along this line over a period of years by Howard Stubbins, present trade commissioner, and stated that there would be opportunity for continued and expansion of this work in the new department. An industrial survey was one of the first things to be proceeded with.

The premier stated that selection of Mr. Anderson for the post of deputy minister was the result of careful consideration of those available. The new appointment was an appointment for promotion. It was entirely a case of the position which the man said he was qualified for, and Mr. Anderson was felt by the government to be ideally suited to the particular work which was required of him.

NATIVE IN REWARD

One of the Indians, Mr. Anderson has been engaged in Alberta business for more than 25 years. He was educated in Ireland, and was a student at the Royal University of Ireland. He came to Canada in 1906 and a year or two later moved to Taber, where he joined the Canadian Coal Co., one of the largest coal mining organizations in the west at that time.

Later he went to Lethbridge as an official of the local Rogers-Cashman Lumber Company and for some years was engaged in that work. Prior to his coming to Taber, he had an office in Calgary as representative of Rogers-Cashman Lumber Co.

On the outbreak of war, he joined the Canadian Cavalry Brigade and was sent overseas. Mr. Anderson joined the Canadian Cavalry Brigade and was sent overseas.

CHURCH FETES ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating its sixtieth-year anniversary services were held on Sunday in McDougall United Church with Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell of Victoria as the guest speaker.

Historic religious figures of the occasion were referred to by Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell, minister of the church, who spoke of the influence it has exerted during its long career.

Flowers were presented to Mrs. Leslie Wood, daughter of Rev. George McDougall, founder of the church, by the members of the church, who spoke of the influence it has exerted during its long career.

Addressing a large congregation, Dr. Sippell spoke for his subject, "What the Church of God Can Do." The establishment of a world peace was within the capabilities of the church, stated Dr. Sippell, who quoted similar statements made by Lloyd George.

"To any speaker who was considered treason not to long ago," stated the speaker, "now there is a strong peace movement and a definite attitude towards world peace."

One of the duties of the church, he stated, is to bring it to pass. The establishment of a world peace was within the capabilities of the church, stated Dr. Sippell, who quoted similar statements made by Lloyd George.

Young Thug Walks Out of Cafe After Covering Owner With Revolver

A young thug who backed out of a cafe after covering the owner with a revolver, Saturday night, behind the protection of a blue steel 38 calibre revolver when he was asked to pay for a meal, was being sought by police today for robbery and carrying concealed weapons.

George Wing, proprietor of the Blue Cafe, 101 street, is reporting the case. He said that the gun-fighter, after eating a meal and drinking a cup of coffee, shortly before midnight, stepped out of the cafe, carrying a 38 calibre revolver, and when payment was insisted upon, had pulled out the gun and threatened to blow away the waiter.

With the gun pointed at Wing, the thug backed out of the cafe, saying that he would return Sunday night, and that if he did not, he would be back in the morning.

The thug was wearing a dark suit, a white shirt, and a dark tie. He was carrying a 38 calibre revolver in his right hand, and a 38 calibre revolver in his left hand.

Several answers follow: M.D. James East: "I really can't say. I was in the cafe at the time, but I was not in the room where the shooting took place. I was in the room where the shooting took place, but I was not in the room where the shooting took place."

L. E. LLOYD-Jones, president, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, said that the man who was shot was not a member of the force, and that the man who was shot was not a member of the force.

M. J. WARDEN, chairman of the Civilian Committee, Federation of Community League, said that the man who was shot was not a member of the force, and that the man who was shot was not a member of the force.

G. W. HAZLETT, business man, said that the man who was shot was not a member of the force, and that the man who was shot was not a member of the force.

Both appeared agitated at the conviction and carried out of the court to the cell stairs in a mill race.

No plea was taken when John Hadden was arraigned on a charge of theft of a suit and a watch, over to Thursday for trial. Hadden has been wanted since October 18 when a city policeman saw three youths jump into a parked car on 101 street at night and drive away. A short distance down the block two of the youths jumped out of the car and ran. The third youth, Hadden, was seen to have entered Hadden's drive.

Plans of guilty theft were entered by two shop lifters and the case was set for October 18.

South Africa TRADE ENVOY VISITS CITY

Actively Seeks to Create New Markets on the Prairies

South African trade commissioner to Canada, Dr. De Waal Meyer, is an Edmonton visitor today, returning from a coast-to-coast tour of the prairie provinces.

At the present time, South Africa is producing a surplus of wheat, barley, and other grain, and is looking for new openings, and while here will endeavor to create new markets for these products.

MAKING BIG HEADWAY

South African perfumes are making big headway. These products are chiefly made of native South African plants, and while the trade commissioner is actively working to create new markets for these products.

IN 1923 Canada imported $42,000 worth of South African goods, consisting of sugar, corn, wool, dried fruit, and other products. Last year this amount had increased to $45,000.

Canada this year were perfumes and grape juice which are expected to increase the trade figures.

Prior to going off the gold standard, the 1922-23 Africa was the worst of the depression, but in 1923 the gold standard was restored, and the country was rocketed to prosperity. Mr. Meyer stated, with the gold standard, the price of the most important product, South African wool, was greatly increased, and with her greatest producer, Canada.

At the present time, South Africa is producing a surplus of wheat, barley, and other grain, and is looking for new openings, and while here will endeavor to create new markets for these products.

MAKING BIG HEADWAY

South African perfumes are making big headway. These products are chiefly made of native South African plants, and while the trade commissioner is actively working to create new markets for these products.

IN 1923 Canada imported $42,000 worth of South African goods, consisting of sugar, corn, wool, dried fruit, and other products. Last year this amount had increased to $45,000.

Canada this year were perfumes and grape juice which are expected to increase the trade figures.

Prior to going off the gold standard, the 1922-23 Africa was the worst of the depression, but in 1923 the gold standard was restored, and the country was rocketed to prosperity. Mr. Meyer stated, with the gold standard, the price of the most important product, South African wool, was greatly increased, and with her greatest producer, Canada.

MAN HURT IN HIGHWAY CRASH

Hurtled forward when the light truck in which he was a passenger crashed into a standing oil tank truck on the Calgary highway near Knapview, at 6 a.m. Sunday, a man was killed and another man was injured.

The light truck, driven by Robert Gray, driver of the light truck, was apparently under the influence of alcohol, and was traveling at a high speed when it crashed into the standing oil tank truck.

WHEAT PRICES TURN UPWARD AT WINNIPEG

By James Richardson & Sons, Edmonton

WINNIPEG, Oct. 22.—To the accompaniment of the first crop report of Canada which showed more than a week's 100,000 bushels, wheat futures prices turned upward on the Winnipeg grain exchange today. Values were raised except in uncontracted May and July contracts.

The closing fractional gain represented only a small gain of about one cent, but it was a step in the right direction, and it was the first since the first of the year.

Prices that ruled over the pit all of last week was dissipated by the morning, followed by a steady decline in buying from several sources, traded heavily throughout the session. Liverpool closed 1-1/2 higher and at Chicago values traded closely to Winnipeg's 22-1/2.
